Many Preparing to Camp.

Nearly every southwest Missouri town will be represented at this year's Carthage Chautauqua by a camping party—some by two or three. Already, the management announce, the assurances are for the largest number of campers in the history of the assembly.

The Chautauqua grounds are well shaded and are constantly fanned by cooling breezes. There is a well conducted dining hall on the grounds where meals may be had at moderate prices or campers may prepare their own meals singly or in clubs.

The ideal way to enjoy the Carthage Chautauqua in its entirety is to engage a tent and camp for the full ten days' session. The expense of such an outing is small and the pleasure and satisfaction of it are declared by those who have tried it to be immense.

The assembly opens on Tuesday evening, July 2 and closes on Thursday evening July 11.

Thos. E. Sauls Dead.

Thos. E. Sauls, veteran of three wars and without doubt the oldest man in Jasper county, died Monday at his home south of Oakland. Mr. Sauls saw service in the Seminole, Mexican and Civil Wars, cast his first vote in South Carolina for Andrew Jackson, and saw in his lifetime every president of the United States except Washington and Roosevelt. On September 18th next he would have been 104 years old. A son, Joseph Sauls of Joplin is over 70 years old, and his descendants are numbered by the hundreds. He came to Missouri 54 years ago, locating at Granby. With his passing Jasper county loses its most interesting character as well as its oldest resident.

The high prices in the hog market resulted in heavy shipments from Jasper this week, from one to three or four loads of squealing porkers going out every day. Rex & Patterson and Ward & Moulton were the shippers in most cases.
